   The motion was passed unanimously 2-0-0.

3. New Business
   A. 2026 Next Generation Accountability Report
   Lisa Lamenzo, Assistant Superintendent, reviewed the Next Generation Accountability Report indicators with the Curriculum Committee. She noted that the report was approximately 60% complete and that the state's full report card, including all indicators, was not expected to be finalized until around December.

   The committee discussed the scores and public perceptions of the district. It was suggested that a question-and-answer resource be made available to help clarify the information presented.

   Ms. Lamenzo highlighted the district's efforts to align departmental and district goals, emphasizing a collective commitment and sense of urgency to improve student performance. She stated that the district would continue to share data as it became available.

4. Adjournment

At 7:56 p.m., a motion was made by K. Dunbar and seconded by T. Mack-Mohammed to adjourn.

The motion passed unanimously 2-0-0.
